Questionnaires which have not been signed by the interested individuals cannot be processed.

This questionnaire is to be completed and submitted in full and based on true facts - based on the date on which it is signed.

The questionnaire shall become a component of the policy in respect of the risk circumstances and circumstances material to risk specified therein. The scope of cover is based on the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

Deletions, cancellations (with lines) or other markings shall be deemed to denote negation. The insurer reserves the right to request further information. Incorrect information on the risk circumstances or the fraudulent concealment of other risk circumstances may entitle the insurer to withdraw from the policy or to refuse to provide insurance protection. In the event of fraudulent concealment, the insurer may contest the insurance policy.

Irrespective of the information in this questionnaire, the provisions of the insurance policy and any exclusions and/or restrictions in respect of cover which may be contained therein shall be decisive with regard to the scope of cover.

The policyholder shall bear sole responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the information provided in the questionnaire even if another person compiles the written record thereof. Should questions not be answered or not be answered in full, the policyholder may not claim that the said information has been provided to the intermediary orally.
